

EMERGENCY SITUATIONS

The Board of Trustees may meet by teleconference or video means as often as needed if an emergency exists and the public body is unable to meet at its regular or special board meeting. For purposes of this policy, an emergency is defined as a matter needing the immediate action of the board of trustees, such that a delayed